Foreword

Producing a school yearbook is quite a task, as any of the Blue Quill staff members can verify. Deciding on a theme, selecting a cover, getting pictures made, writing copy, and selling ads and subscriptions are among the tasks demanding a lot of time and trouble. Add to these such obstacles as the staff's photographer moving to another state before many pictures were taken, the preparation of copy being delayed because the editor had to appear as a witness in a court trial, and school being dismissed for several days as a result of an influenza epidemic, and it is readily seen that the book of '52 was created amid discouraging difficulties. Despite such difficulties, however, the staff realizes that helping to produce the Blue Quill of 1952 was one of their most significant experiences during all of their school days.

This book could not have become a reality, however, without the co-operation of staunch friends—Supt. F. D. Manry; Mr. Jack Hines, high school principal; Mrs. Ann Gould and Mrs. Lennie Durham of Gould's Studio; Mr. C. L. Hightower, of the University Supply and Equipment Company; our advertisers; and all others too numerous to mention. To everyone who assisted us in any manner to add the twelfth edition to the Blue Quill, our sincere thanks.

In the years ahead, may the turning of pages in the Blue Quill of '52 evoke happy memories of a progressive school term—a term made especially memorable by Corrigan High School winning the district championship in football and being one of fifty schools throughout the nation winning a first-place award in a contest sponsored by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, to stimulate the growth of democracy in education.

Long live all happy memories of the school year 1951-'52 to you!

Dedication

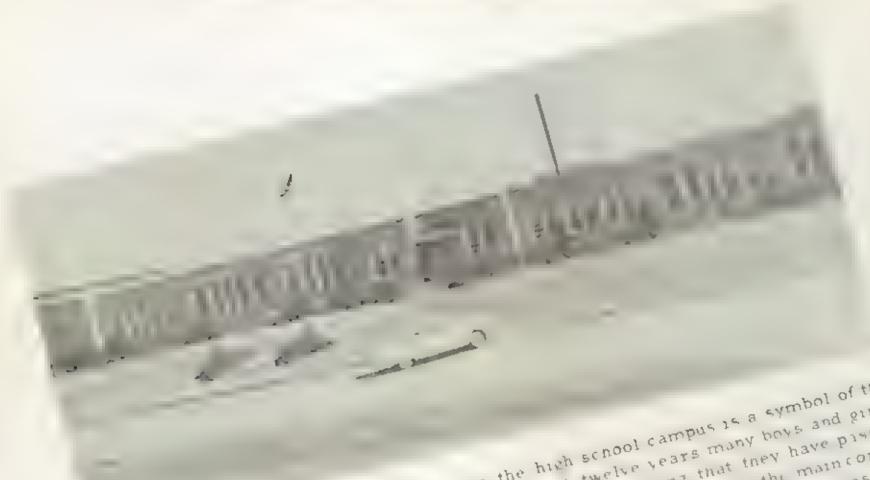

To Coach Jasper R. Cockrell and Assistant Coach Frank Garvey-good friends, excellent coaches, and inspiring class-room teachers-the staff takes pleasure in dedicating the 1952 Blue Quill. By their inspiring leadership and untiring efforts, these coaches led the 1951 Bulldogs to the football championship of District 21-B. The first Corrigan High School football team ever to play in a bi-district game, the Bulldogs' brilliant record on the gridiron stands as a tribute to these coaches' efforts in a team well-drilled in football fundamentals and good sportsmanship.

FREIDOM IN ACTION IN CORRIGAN HIGH SCHOOL DURING THE 1950 51 TERM THAT WON FOR THE SCHOOL ONE OF THE HIGHEST HONORS IN THE NATION

This past term a few days before the anniversary of the birthday of President George Washington, a registered letter was received at Corrigan High School announcing the startling news that our high school had been selected by a distinguished national awards jury as having submitted one of the 50 outstanding entries in a nationwide fundamental freedoms program sponsored by the Freedoms Foundation, Inc., at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

The announcement came as a complete surprise to everyone, as Mrs. Aline Rothe, yearbook sponsor who entered the high school in the contest, had told no one about it as she did not want anyone to be disappointed in case the school's entry did not win an award. And the award was really a surprise to her, also, as it had been quite some time since she had submitted the material—on the closing date, November 1, 1951—and she had practically forgotten about entering it.

As requested in the letter on the opposite page, announcement of the high school's great honor was not officially made until the anniversary of President Washington's birthday. On Friday, February 22, Superintendent Floyd D. Manry called a special assembly of faculty and pupils and made the announcement about the school's being one of fifty in the entire nation cited for a distinguished awards entry, entitling the school to a Freedoms Foundations Library, including many famous books, films, records, and reproductions of historical documents; a gold medal; a bronze plaque; and an all-expenses paid trip for one teacher and one pupil to the Freedoms Foundation Pilgrimage May 1-4 to historical shrines of Valley Forge, Washington's head-quarters, and other historic places in and around Philadelphia, the birthplace of American Freedom.

The entry which won for Corrigan High School this distinction was entitled "Summary of a Program Promoting American Democratic Principles In Corrigan High School, Corrigan, Texas, During the 1950-'51 School Term." Included in the summary was an account of the promotion of democracy by the local high school chapter of the National Honor Society; the yearbook staff; the senior class; chapel programs; a copy of Charline Stanford's prize-winning essay on Americanism in last year's essay contest sponsored by the Texas Friends of Conservation, Inc.; and pictures of local high school pupils taking part in patriotic activities.

As the annual goes to press, Mrs. Rothe and Gwen Hudson, yearbook editor, selected by vote of the faculty as the high school's student representative, are making plans to fly to Valley Forge to take part in the 1952 Freedoms Foundation Pilgrimage

VALLEY FORGE

KENNETH D. WELLS
President

PA. February 18, 1952

The Principal Corrigan High School Corrigan, Texas

Dear Sir:

We have good news for you because you brought good news to us. that your school is doing something outstanding to emphasize and preserve the fundamental freedoms in our American Way of Life. The entry's ibmitted by Corrigan High School was considered by our distinuished National Awards Jury to be one of the fifty outstanding entries worthy of award.

The purpose of this letter is to tell you that this award carries with it a Freedoms Library for your school, a Freedoms Foundation gold award meda., and an all-expense paid trip to Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, for one (1) teacher and one (1, student from your school

The teacher and student selected are entitled to an expense-paid trip using first class transportation facilities over any type of carrier that you wish to select, air, rail, or automobile Hotel accommodations and meals will be provided for them at the Valley Forge Hotel in nearby Norristown, Pennsylvania. We will meet them at the Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad station at Paoli, six miles from Valley Forge, or will meet them at the Philadelphia Interpational Airport. Because of limited tacilities at Valley Forge Hotel, we can assure no additional space for family or friends who desire to accompany them. Nearby Philadelphia, however, twenty-three miles away, offers unlimited housing facilities.

During their stay here, your representatives will visit Freedoms Foundation. Valley Forge Park, Washington Memorial Chapel, Washington's Headquarters Independence Hail, Betsy Ross House, and other national shrines in this area. They will appear on radio and possibly television shows.

The Freedoms Library will be shipped to voir school tollowing the Valley Forge Pilgrimage Freedoms Foundation's honor medal will be presented to a representative of your school at regional awards ceremonies to be held during March or April You will be given more complete information about this presentation at an early date.

As soon as your representatives have been selected, please advise us of their names and whether or not they will need to have their transportation advanced to them. The responsibility for scheduling their trip is yours. We will turnish transportation and prepay it if requested over any direct route. Your representatives should arrive on the afternoon or evening of May 1, and should plan to leave on May 4. They may, however, arrive as late as the morning of May 2 and leave as early as the evening of May 3 if conditions demand.

Information concerning this award has been given to your local newspaper for release on the atternoon of February 22. In the meantime we shall ask your cooperation in keeping this information on a confidential basis until broken by the local press on February 22.

Congratulations

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth D. Wells

YOUR ROAD AHEAD

Your road ahead is a projection of the road you have traveled. Has the road this year been for you one of accomplishment victory, development, fulfillment, aspiration, and realization of hope; or has it been a series of defeats, sorrows, pains, fears, a year of static, monotonous, and drab experiences? These are not peculiarly school day sensations but are the conglomeration of life itself. The proportion, or mixture, is a personal feat.

Be careful to choose wisely the materials in the road you travel and select not the shifting sands but the rocks of integrity, morality, inspiration, and determination.

Very truly yours,

CORRIGAN, TEXAS

We are the Bulldogs and we are proud of the fact. Webster describes a bulldog as having great courage, a fighting heart, a tenacious spirit, and a kind disposition unless aggravated by another. I think this description fits not only the athletic teams but the entire student body of Corrigan High School It is this spirit that led us to our first district football championship and the conclusion of one of the most enjoyable and successful years in the history of our school.

My knowledge of biology reminds me there are three kinds of bees in a beehive. The queen bee sits around all the time waiting for the other bees to feed and care for her. The drone bees refuse to work and are easily "pushed around" by the other bees. The workers are the ones responsible for making the community life in the beehive the success that we know it to be. Our society is likewise composed of queens, drones, and the workers. I wonder which you are and will be. The choice is yours.

Congratulations to the annual staff and their sponsor for this fine annual. It shall be a permanent reminder of the hours they spent in its pre-paration and of the good times we had together during their last year in our hidst.

Very truly yours,

Last Will And Testament Of The Senior Class Of 1952

We, the members of the senior class of the Corrigan High School, having assimilated all of the knowledge that is possible for us to get and having grabbed all the grades worth having, deem it a wise time for us to make provision for the distribution of all our treasures and worldly goods which we have held hereunto appertaining while we have been students of the Corrigan High School.

Therefore, know all men, by these presents: Greeting:

All our personal effects not otherwise in this instrument disposed of, we direct to be sold at the earliest possible date after our graduation, by our executor, and the proceeds spent to set up a fund for the juniors.

I, Shirley Broaddus, will my position as secretary of the '52 class to Charlene Alsbrooks.

I, Charlie Fann, will all my great football career and the front seat in the English room to Ray Reily.

I, Neil Hancock, hereby will my great ability to make girls swoon to Neli Matthews.

- I, Gwen Hudson, will my position as editor of the annual to some poor soul who is dumb enough to take it.
- I, Thomas Kendrick, will my ability and experience of slipping out of the eighth period study hall to Billy Temple.

I, Jay Locke, hereby will all of my ability and experience of smoking in the rest room between periods to "The Thing" (Kenneth Barclay).

I, Jesse Earl Loving, will my front seat in English and journalism to Melvin Risenhoover.

I, Frank McCarty, will my chemistry book to Louis Mullican.

I, Mary Moulder, will my ability to do all typing for Mrs Rothe to Florence Baker, and my bookkeeping book to anyone that wants it.

I, Billie Smiley, will my ability to play the alto saxophone to Dorothy Nell

Safford in her senior year

I, Charles Dale (Shorty) Sturrock, hereby will all my years of hard study of training my voice and my ability to sing to beautifully to Charles (Horse") Attaway.

I, Ottince Tarver, will my journalism book to Giva Matlock.

I, Ector Thompson, will my dear old hiding place in the English room to the sleepiest boy in the '53 class-Glenn Cross.

I, Raye Walker, will my Algebra II book to Virginia McGough.

I, Charles Ward, will my good old English book to James Arthur Deggs.

I, Kenneth Watson, w...l my ability to perform on the stage with mental stage fright to any member who ever gets into the National Honor Society

"What shall the theme be...?" "What kind of cover...?" "How many pages...?" "Can we raise sufficient funds...?" Such questions are eventually answered to everyone's satisfaction but there's a lot of hard work shead before they are.

"Don't forget the deadline

For the twelfth year now Mrs. Aline Rothe has helped staffs produce a volume of the "Blue Quill", ruthlessly "ruining" copy with her inevitable red pencil while listening sympathetically to various woes. Although the problems of staffs from 1939 to 1952 may differ and each succeeding staff may feel that their edition of the yearbook is "better than all the others", they and the sponsor always have a common goal—to "catch" the spirit of Corrigan High School between the covers of the "Blue Quill".

"Are the rulers filed under "R"?"

Without yearbook copy, pictures, letters, advertising contracts, rulers, and other "valuables" getting lost in the mysterious depths of the locker in the "annual room", no "Blue Quill" staff would feel quite normal. All misplaced copy and "tools" are eventually located and the "blue print" for the "Blue Quill" finally finished much to the surprise of all. Then the tired old locker gets a good "house cleaning" and rest until the rummaging of another staff begins

ARLAND NASH

This page is dedicated to Arland Nash, a true friend, loyal classmate, and one of the hardest fighting Bulldogs in the history of Corrigan High School football. Arland, a stanch guard, was in the thick of the hardest fighting with teammates during every gridiron battle, and his ability and determination were decisive factors in Bulldog victories.

Arland is now in a sanatorium recovering from a serious illness, but his many friends are noting that he will be back on the high school campus next fall. Since he did so much to defeat such formidable foes as the Groveton Indians, the Trinity Tigers, the Chester Yellowjackets, and others, fans know that he should have no trouble licking the little "bug" that has him temporarily inactive, and will soon be back in school again.

BIGGER THINGS AHEAD

of a century Reddy Kilowatt and Gulf States have been helping students earn their diplomas and equip themselves to assume their greater responsibilities. In the years ahead you can continue to look to Reddy to be a partner in the progress and development of our schools, our business and the system of free enterprise that has made our country great. Today, more than ever, electric living means better living.
